PADEKIME TREMTINIAMS LIETUVIAMS ISIKURTI LOS ANGELY!

Reikia tiketis, kad kongresas ir senatas priims DP isileidimo Amerikon istatymą. Daugelis tremtinių lietuvių, esanciu Europos stovykluose, noretu isikurdinti Kalifornijoje, tik neturi kas juos kviečia. Be kvietimo jie nebus ileidziami Amerikon. Kvietimas nera affidavitu isdavimas, bet tik pasizadejimas atvykusiems duoti pastoge per 6 menesius. Nesvarbu ar pas save, ar kitur jam susrasite patalpas, kad tik lauke netektu seimai miegoti. Tokius pakvietimus gali duoti kiekvienas lietuvis, nes nereikalinga patiekti paliudymu apie turima nejudoma nuosavybę, kiek turi banke pinigu, ar kiek uzdirbi.

Man teko buti globeju ieskojimo komitete, ir daug kartu teko rausti, kai tie, kurie turi didžiausius apartamentus, turta skaito simtai tukstanciu, dazniausiai be-seimaiasmens sykstejo ar "bijojo" prisiimti kokia komiteto rekomenduojamą seimą. Ju visas pasiaukojimas butu, kad turetu uzleisti viena apartamenta (daznai atvyke ne to nereikalauja), arba savo kambariais pasidalintu. Taigi yra lietuvių, kurie del dolorio, del mazo pasiaukojimo susispaudžiant patalpose, leistu zuti savo broliams koncentracijos stovyklose! Manau, kad ne as vienas raudonuosiu, bet visi lietuviai sarmatysis, kai save besivadina "gerais patriotais" ir gyvena pertekliuje, atsisako padeti saviesiems.

Zemiau paduodame sarasa Los Angeles ir apylinkių lietuvių, apsiemusiu globoti keleta tremtinių lietuvių; skliausteliuose paduodame, kiek asmenų sutiko globoti. Stai sis garbingas sarasas:

VEIKIMO SUAKTYVINIMO KLAUSIMU

Gal jau arti ta valanda, kada kovojanti Lietuva vel issiliuosos is vergijos panciau. Juk sis antrasis pasaulinis karas dar nera baigtas. Dar stipriausias diktatorius zingsnis po zingsnio tebesiekia pavergti pasauli. Mum, lietuviams, to diktatoriaus planai senai buvo aiskus, daugelio valstybių politiku to nepajėge suprasti, taciau siandien, kai Čekoslovakija ir Rumunija su Rusijos agentu ir ginklu pagalba buvo pavergtos, daugelis pamate tikrą demokratijos priesa.

Veliau ar anksciau dvikove ivyks tarp Rytų ir Vakarų, tarp raudonojo fasizmo ir tikrosios demokratijos. Toje dvikoveje tures progos ir Lietuvos partizanai aktingai pasireiksti. Demokratijos pergale neabejotina, ir pavergtu tautu laisve vel bus atstatyta. Lietuva vel taps nepriklausoma valstybe, gal but, ivgiateise nare organizuojamoje Europos Valstybių Sajungoje.

Amerikos lietuvių yra sventa pareiga prisdeti prie kovojancios. Lietuvos pastangu ir ypac prie issilaisvinusios Lietuvos technisko atstatymo. Lietuva yra nualinta visokeriopais atzvilgiais. Juk visos kultūrines, tautines institucijos yra uzdarytos, galingosios organizacijos suardytos, inteligenčia ar tai nuo saltojo S. biro taigu iki Pacifiko pakranciu.

Kovojanciai Lietuvai mes padejome ir padedame, bet zymiai permazai. To priežastimi yra daugelio lietuvių nesamoningumas, nepajegumas suprasti, kaip yra svarbu visame pasaulyje vesti propaganda del Lietuvos išlaisvinimo, kaip yra svarbu susisiekti su pogindžio veikejais ir jiems tiek moraliai, tiek materialiai padeti, kiek yra svarbu padeti lietuvių politinems grupems tremtyje, kurie turi glaudesni kontakta su pogindžiu. Si politini darba vykde ir tebevykdo Amerikos Lietuviu Taryba, atstovaujama paciu didžiausiui lietuviu fraterniniu draugiju (SLA ir LRKSA), socialiniu, kulturiniu ir religiniu organizaciju. Tik kelios ir visai mazos grupes (viena komunizmo, o kita diktatūrino rezimo salininkes) per visa karo laika stengesi įestti i veikima disharmonija su savo intrygomis bei paraleliu siuntinejimu delegatu (i UN konferenciją, San Francisco; cia turejome net tris delegacijas, ir pas prezidentą). Ir tos grupeles gyresi atstovaujancios 100% Amerikos lietuvius. Argi nejuokinga! Abieju grupiu nariu skaicius nesiekia ne 5% visu Amerikos organizuotu lietuviu.

A. L. T. politine veikla turi buti labiau remiama ir suaktyvinama, ypac dabartiniu metu.

Jau dabar turetu buti aptarta, suplanuota, kuriais budais padesime del išlaisvinusios Lietuvos. Šioje srityje jau turime gera praktika, is 1918-1923 metu. Nors toji pagalba tuometiniu metu vyko daugiau spontanisku negu suplanuotu budu, bet ji buvo labai entuziaziska ir nuosirdi. Ar dabartiniu metu butu sukeliamas tiek entuziazmo, yra priežasciu paabettoti. Tomis priežastimis butu tam tikras apsivylimas veliausiuoju t.č vienos partijos Lietuvos valdymu, taip pat staigus Amerikos lietuvių nutautejimas (tik paimkime musu žmūni veikejų, valstybės vyru vaikus, kurie visai nemoka lietuvių kalbos ir nenori nieko bendro su lietuviu turėti), ir negana stiprus patriotizmo isugdymas jaunojoje kartoje. Didžiausia kalte krenta tevams ir mokykloms, nors to nutautejimo priežastimi daznai buna ne jie, bet gyvenimo salygos ir aplinkuma. Jaunimas i išlaisvinusios Lietuvos remima ziuretu labai rezervuo-tai, o senieji - skeptiskai. Visas darbas vel kristu ant idealistų peciu, juk jie ir dabar tik palaiko lietuviskaja spauda, draugijas ir liet. institucijas (ligonines, mokyklas, seneliu prieglaudas, baznycias ir t.t.)

Besiruosdami suteikti Nepriklausomai Lietuvai visokeriopa parama, turetume jau dabar itempti savo jėgas ir suaktyvinti veikima. Pirmiausia turetume sutelkti i savo organizacijas labai didele dali palaidu lietuviu, tiek jaunimo, tiek senosios kartos. Tas labai aktualu Los Angelyje, kur apskaičiuojama virs 5000 lietuviu, is kuriu ne 500 nera organizuoti. Juk daznai cia sutinkame lietuviu, kurie gyvena keliolika metu, taciau dar nezino, kad yra lietuviska baznycia ir apie 10 patriotinių draugijų. Turetume paskelbtį didžiaja lietuviu "medzioklę" pereiti namas is namo, savo kaimynus, klausinejant ar nepazysta daugiau lietuviu. Reiketų paskelbtį nariu verbavimo planą. Surinkti juos ir sudominti lietuviu veikimu - turetu buti kiekvieno klubo svarbiausiu uždaviniu.

Antrasis svarbus uždavinys yra tai tautinis bei politinis lietuvių samoninimas per spauda, organizacija ir privacius pasikalbejimus. Juk mes dar rasime tarpe musu daug tokiu lietuviu, kurie neskiria ALT, SLA, BALF, LTS ir LSS tikslu bei uždaviniu. Teko sutiki ir tokiu, kurie per daugeli metu skaite Stalino propagandinių laikrasti "Vilni," bet mane, kad tai tikrai lietuviskas laikrastis su patriotiku vardu "Vilnius." Zinoma tokia klaida gali tik daryti save besivadina "pazangiaisiais."

Veikiančiu draugiju vadai su prityrusiais pavieniais asmenimis turetu giliai sias problemas ištudiuoti ir sudaryti atitinkamus planus. Siuo reikalu reguliariai turetu buti saukiamos draugiju konferencijos ir net masiniai susirinkimai.

KOVOJANTI LIETUVA

Kun. J. Kuzmickis

Tik i darba greiciau!
Tik mylekim karsciau!
Tik, vyrai, pajudikim zeme!

—Maironis.

Atgimimo dainiaus Maironio zodziai betariantiega bociu salis . . . Lietuvoje nebeskamba grazios liaudies dainos, iskilmingai negaudzia baznyciu varpai, artojai su baime i miskus ziuri.

Vergija, baisi XX amžiaus zmonių vergija, kokios istorija iki siol dar nezino, surakino ne tiktais lietuviu rankas, bet ir mintis zodi. Ir tremiami nekalti zmones Sibiran, naikinamos gajausios jegos, o tremtiniu tukstanciai kla-joja plataus pasaulio plotuose.

Taciau Lietuva nemire: ji tiktais miega . . .

Dar daugiau: siandien musu Tevyne galima pavadinti kovojancią Lietuvą, o visus istikimus jos vaikus-kovojojais. Nesvarbu, kur jie bebuti, - ar Sibiro tremtyje, ar Vokietijos sto. yklose, ar Anglijos farmose ir pramoneje, ar Amerikos miestuose, ar Kanados miskuose, - jie kovoja, jie dirba, kad pagaliau Lietuva butų laisva.

Gaila, labai gaila, kad maza lietuviu tautos iseivijos dalis nusisuko nuo teisybės ir laisves idealu. Skaudu, kad raudonojo opumo užnuodytieji, nesuprasdami tikrosios savo tevynės padeties, isdavikiskai spiauna jai i sukruvinta veida. Tegu jie atvirai pasikalba su paprasciausiu tremtiniu darbininku, ir supras, kad gyvenimo negali buti ten, kur niekinamos ir nepripazistamos elementariausios zmogaus teises . . .

Gera tiktais, kad tokiu labai nedaug, kad ju eiles laikui begant reteja.

Kovojanti Lietuvia iskelia siandien tuos pacius sukius, kuriuos anksciau Maironis skelbe:

Paimkim arkla, knyga, lyra,— ir eikim Lietuvos keliu!

Vadinasi, bet koks darbas—ir fizinis, ir mokslinis, ir kulturinis,—jei jis atliekamas saziningai ir musu paprociu dvasioje,—artina Lietuvai laisve.

Ir taip dirba visi kovojancios Lietuvos vaikai—vieni prakaituoja, plusa, kuriasi ir taupo, kad atsikurusios Lietuvos dirvonuose galima butu idiegti augancia sekla; kiti mokosi, lavinasi, dirba lietuviu mokyklose, spaudoje, kad griztu i tevynę savarankus, issimoksline

UZJURIO BROliai

Jus matot benamiu simtus—
Jie laivo prie juros vis laikia . . .
Benamio likimas kartus—
Beviltiskai dangu jam niaukia.
Tremtiniui uzpuste kelius
Ir vartai uzkelti i grycia.
O broliai, mus kryzius sunkus!—
Jis sveria nedalia ir kancia.
Jus matot tevynej kapus,
Ir alkana vilka prie kelio . . .
O Sibiro vejas rustus,
Vis atnesa skunda brolelio.
Bet, broliai, mus viltys visu,
Ir dvasines kovos neluzta*—
Kenteki, kovokim kartu,
Uz teviskes laisve, uz guzta!

—JUOZAS KALVAITIS.

ATMERKIT AKIS!

Lietuviu Tautos istorija yra pilna tragiku ir skaudziu ivykiu. Jai teko vesti ilgu ir sunkiu karu, isgyventi ivairiu okupaciju ir pakelti daug vidiniu sukretimu.

Taciau dabartine Lietuvos tragedija neturi pavyzdzio ne tik savo, bet ir viso pasaulio tautu istorijoj. Siandien i musu tautos sirdi ir smagenis po "prolitiato geroves vardu" yra atskustas pats astriaujas ir slykscausias issigimusio zmogaus peilis. Bolsevikai iskoneveike lietuviu tautos kulturini gyvenima, pakeisdami jo krikscioniska turini ir lietuviska forma. Jie skaudziai paz-eide tautos sazine, zmoniu sveika galvojima, versdamu juos mastytis atsilikusiom savokom.

Kartu su dvasios zudymu eina ir fizinis tautos naikinimas. Tukstanciai lietuviu atsidure kalejimuose, Sibire ir baisioj cekisto bamej. Taip kartu su minutemis gesta simtai musu tautieciu, pranykdami lyg vakaro seseliai saulei besileidziant.

Be to, tukstanciai musu tremtiniu skursta Vakaru Europos kempese, nematydamu beveik jokios gyvenimo prosvaistes ir skaidresnio ateities spindulelio. Baisios gyvenimo salygos iki pamisimo eda ju sveikata ir nervus. Ju vaikuciui krutines be gailescio griauzia dziovos bakterijos. Taigi jiems, kaip ir visai Lietuviu Tautai liko vienas laisvas keliai, - keliai i mirti.

Sia musu tautos nelaime didina ir daro ja dar klakesne, tai tam tikros musu bendrakrauju lietuviu laikysena. Jie, uzuot gyvene bendru tautos liudesiu ir dirbe del jos atvadavimo, pila vandeniu ant svetimo maluno. Savo centais gausiai remia musu tautos budeiliu darbus, ju spauda ir varo propaganda pries savo gimtaji krasta ir Amerika. Seniau jie atvirai save vadindavo komunistais. Siandien jie jau dangstosi bedieviu, pazangiuju, progresistu vardais. Taciau, turino galvoje daugumos ju nuosavybes ir turta, puikius autos, patogius baldus, geriausiai jiems tiktu bolseviku iprastas pavadinimas bozes vardas. Ir Stalino logika vadovaujant, jiems vieta Sibire, o ju sunkiai uzdirbtas turtelis turetu atitekti "prolitiato valdzia."

Dabar kas del pazangumo! Dalis visai nemoka skaitysi ir rasyti. Kiti yra keliu pradzios mokyklos skyriu issilavinimo zmones. Siaip dedasi labai mokyti ir gudrus. Prasilavinusieji - dazniausiai buna apmokami Maskvos agentai.

Mums, kurie kryziuojames del savo tautos likimo ir musu broliu baisios padeties, si musu bendratauci laikysena yra klaikiai tragiska ir visai musu tautai sukelia didziausi skausma. Po tiek daug autentisku ir nesugriaunamu faktu bei liudijimu sie musu zmones turetu praregeti ir pagaliau atmerkti akis. Grizti i patriotingaja tautieciu bendruomene niekada nera pervelu ir durys visuomet atviro. Pavelavimas gali skaudziai kastuoti.

zmones ir pakeistu mirusius ar uzkankintus; pagaliau, kulturininkai, visuomenininkai ne tiktais gaivina tautine samone savo tautieciu tarpe, bet ir svetimiesiems parodo, kokia kurybiska ir kulturinga yra lietuviu tauta.

Nenuleiskime ranku ir niekad nepasiduokime nusiminimui! Ir is sunkiausios padeties iseinama. Lietuva gi degina brangiausiu savo vaiku aukas Visagaliui ir tiki prisikelimu—

tik atbus gi kada:
Ne veltui ji tiek iskentejo!

K. BAGDONAS

Buvo pavasaris-zydintis gelemis pavasaris, kaip visi pavasariai musu lauku karaliskos pievu diademos prausesi saules spinduliuose, pietu vejelis buciavo jas. Dziaugsmo sukuriais, kaip vasaros vakaro daina Baltijos juru bangose, bangavo zoles. Bitutes, rinkdamos salduji medu, duzge ziedu juroj. Plastakes zaide uzmirse rupescius dienu.

Gyvybe alsavo lankos, kalneliai ir miskai. Pataite dejo lizdan kiausini, patinas sparnu rezdamas linksmai kalbino ja-kalbos garsas sklido pievu plociais pasiekdamas misku gludumas ir zmoniu ausis. Ramybe ir diaugsmas viespatavo gamtoj. Toks jau pavasario desnis—toks noras pavasariu Kurejo. Burtangi pavasario mirazai—linksmai, malonus skverbesi visur ieskodami uzeigos isitvirtinti.

Si diaugsmu alsuojanti pavasari zmogus — zemes karalius, Dievo panasumu ir pavidalu sutvertas killingasis gyvis, buvo neramus: negalejo diaugtis groziu lygiuju lauku, z a l i u j u pievu, auksiniu kvieciu birziu, svyruoneliu berzeliu ir isdidziu pievu iramuniu. Svecios salies nekvesti ir nelaukiami sveciai, negailestingai II-ji metai viespatavo kraste. Skausmo, it sviesiu zvaigzdiu giedria ziemos nakti prisejo svetmieji. Pavasario liepos pumpuru skleidesi jis ir nebuvo kas suturi.

14-ji birzelio . . . nustojo zeme zydeti zilviciais, zaliais vasarojais ir pauksciai suturejo giesme jaunystei . . . triunfuodamas vargas ejo teviskes kaimais ir miestais . . . ir pravirko ant vario vartu parimus motule sunaus, sunus motinos, vaikas, darbo nastos sulenkto, zilagalvio, tevo, tevas-sunaus . . .

Daug "savanoriu-pionieriu" skestanciu skausmo asaroze subego gyvuliniuos vagonuos "atsidekoti uz isavadavima darbu, draugui, tevui ir mokytojui Stalinui."

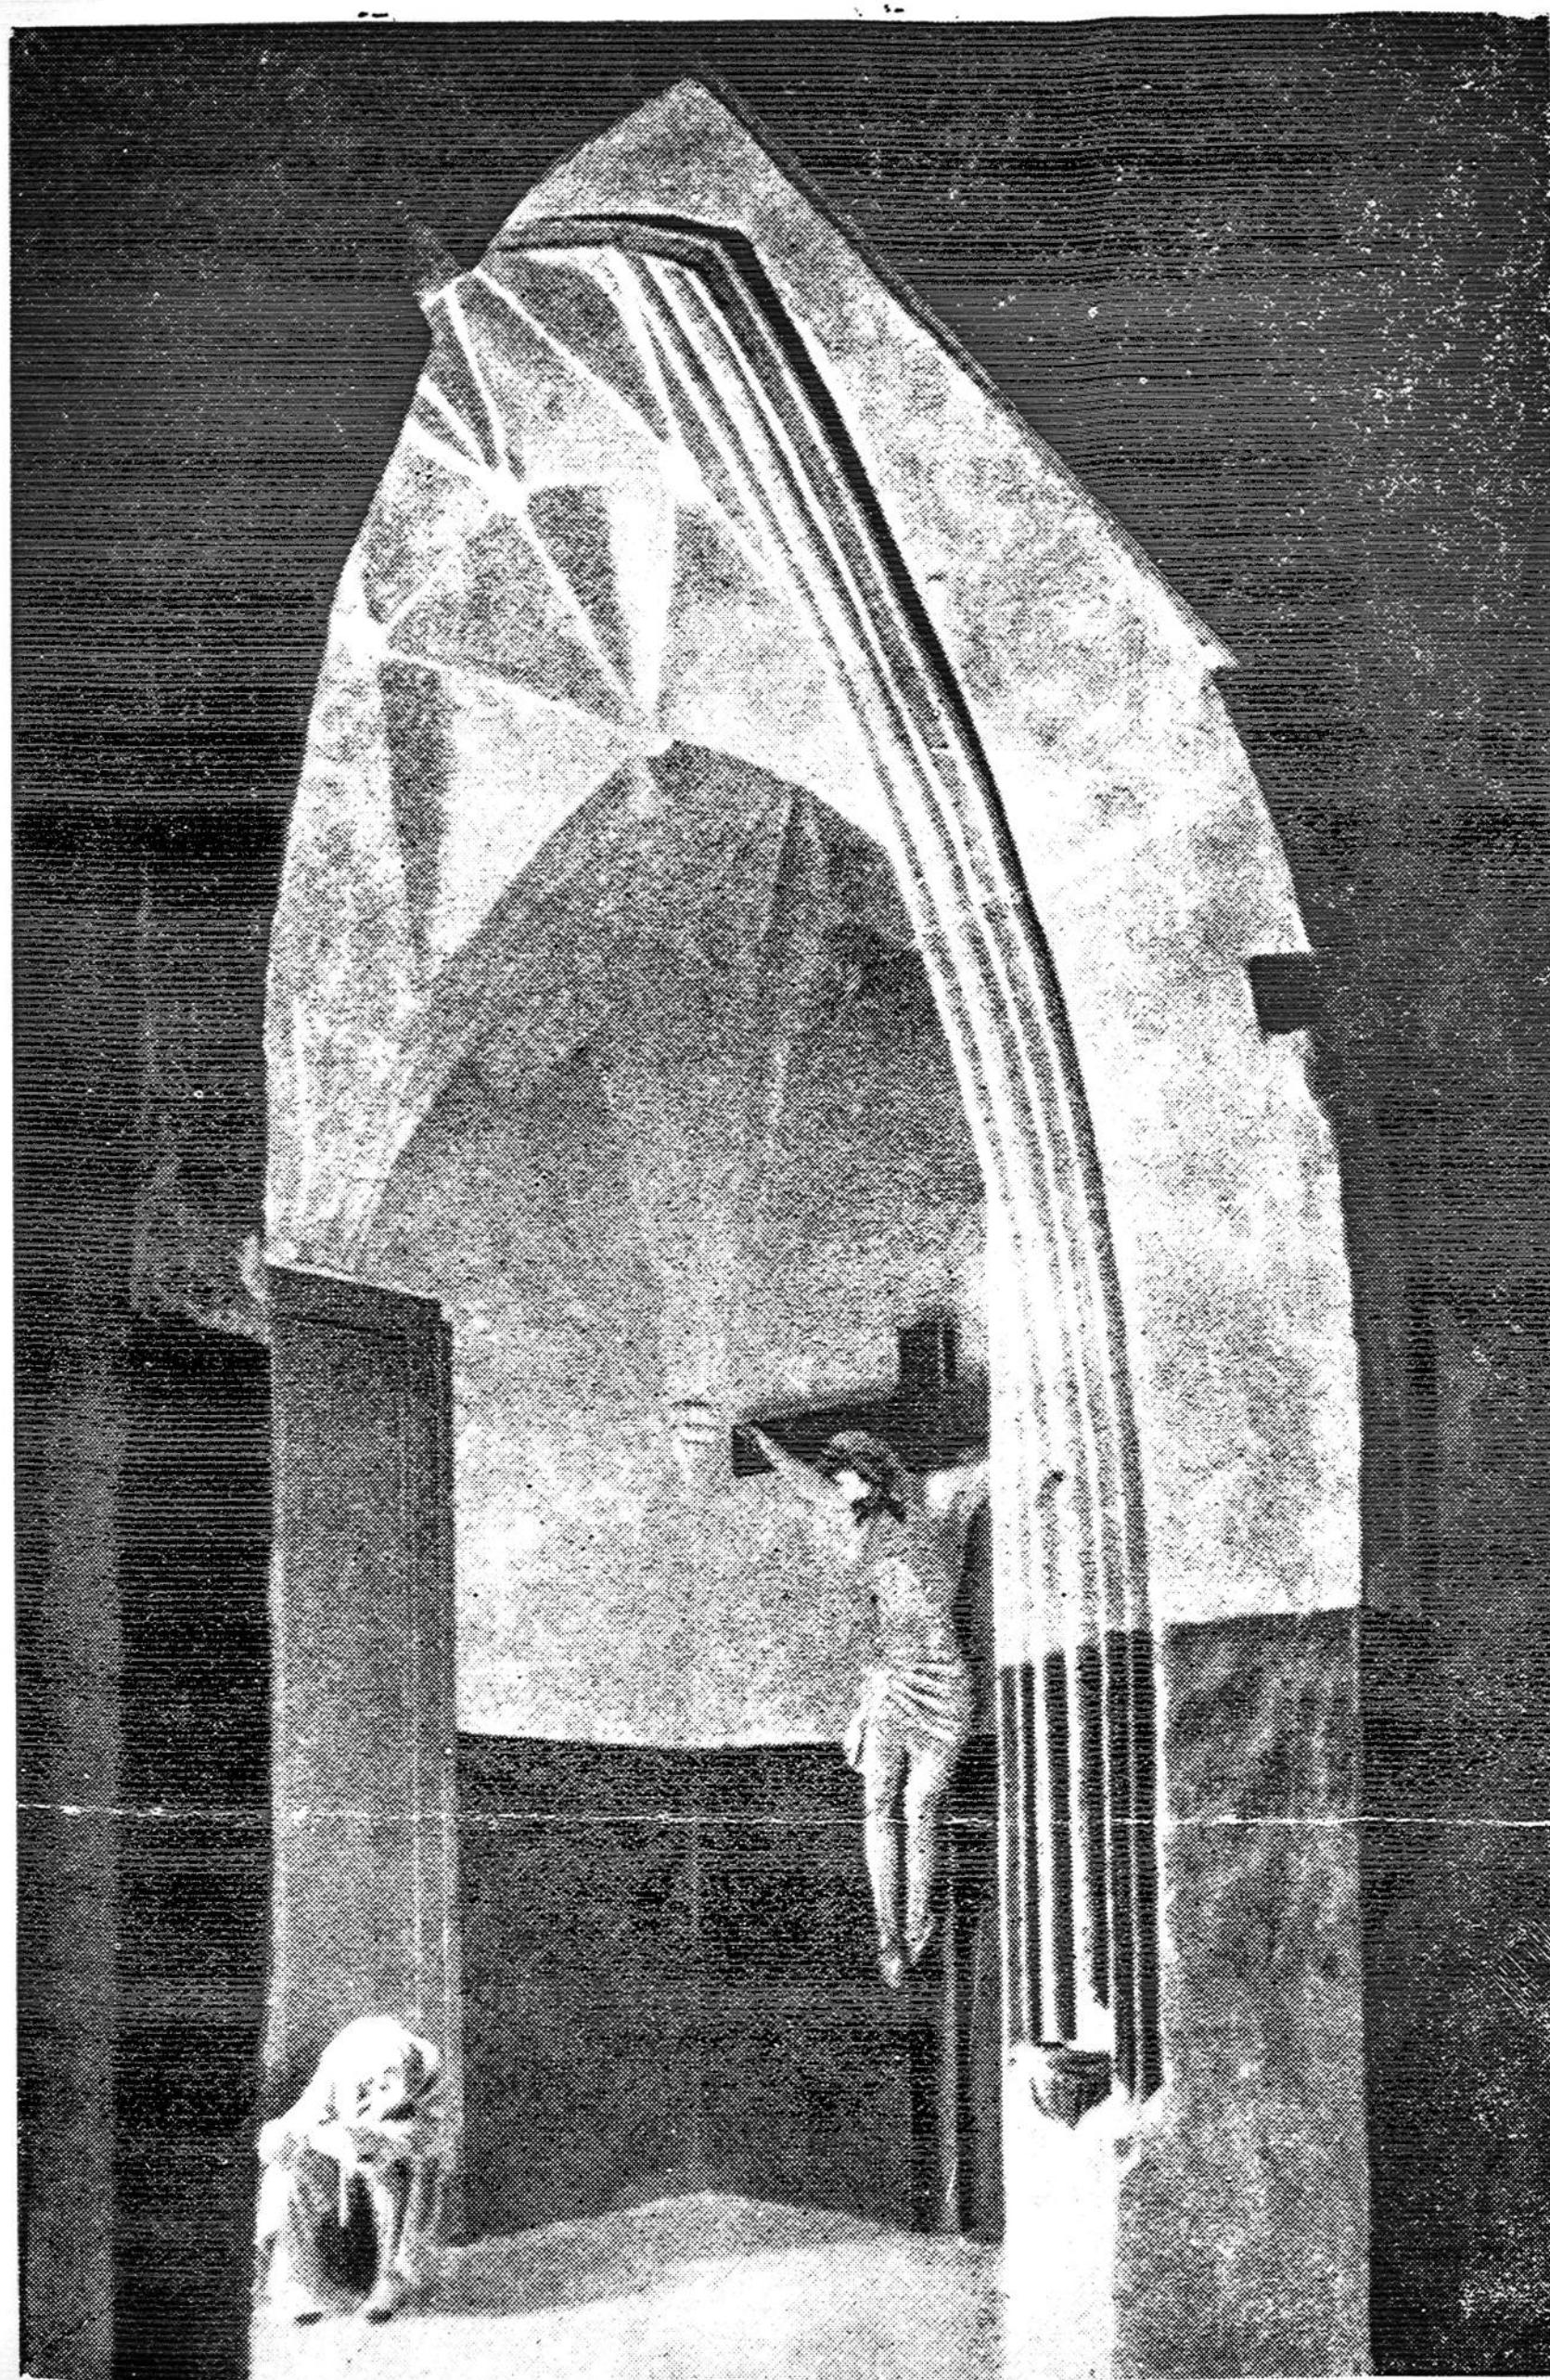

Kaip selstanciu rudenio vakaro audru sukeltas aidas, sklido dejones ir skambejo naslystes vargu, suduzusio gyvenimo skeveldrose.

Baimes siaubas vaiksciojo juodais dirvonais ir sukosi guzta arimuos ir sirdyse zmoniu. Daugeli nukresdavo nevilties siurpuliai.

Po laisves gražiuju svajoniu, zydejusiu jazminu zie-dais baisu papulti siurpion, audroton, it kruvinos vakaro zaros tikroven, justi, kad baisi likimo letena, it sunkusis Demoklio kardas kabot virs tavo galvos, kad se kunde po sekundes gali ateiti rusciosios likimo laumes vergas, nukirpti siula ir . . . sugniasi pilkasis zemes kel-eivi po sunkia nasta jo . . . ir tavo brolis ir tavo artimas ir kiekvienas, kas isnesiojo sirdvyje baltuju vaikystes dienu ikvepta lietuviskumo kibirkstele-kas neparsidave uz Judo sidabrinius svetimiesiems. Rustusis skundas keliavo it paskutine rudenio diena nesdamas lietuviu dvasiai nesulaikomus tvanus kancios sirdies svajoniu kelius uzpyle sudegusio gyvenimo gruzu. Vilties sukes, it saule takio palaimintos maldos, draikesi nevilties jur-os audrotam soky.

Vakaruose zmogus zude zmogu . . . It ragana, savo puotas paskutinin sokin, skubejo katostrofon rytais.

Lietuvos vienkiemiuos ir miestu kvartaluos suzibo issilaisvinimo kibirkstele. Ji meiliai sia niuria gyvenimo nakti, glaudziamama prie krutiniu rengiantis naujo laisves ryto sutikti.

THEN HIS TEMPERATURE WENT DOWN

WILLIAM R. DOUGHERTY

Manager, Los Angeles
Disability Insurance Office
California Department of Employment

The little nurse smiled gaily as she read the thermometer. "Your temperature is down this afternoon," she congratulated her patient.

"I'm feeling much better. I've had good news," he replied.

Jim had threshed restlessly for many long hours on the narrow white bed, staring hopelessly at his upraised leg, held in position by traction.

His thoughts raced feverishly. What would he do now? What about Janie and little curly headed Jimmy? There must be an answer. The doc said it would be six months before he could get out of bed.

Who did he know that could spare the money to see his family through? Aunt Mary? No, Aunt Mary had been good to them, but she had her own problems. Groaning, he scowled at the neat row of beds in the long ward.

Everything had been swell, until four days ago. He and Janie had bought a little cottage that needed only a few touches to make it their dream home. He had been standing on a ladder, painting the ceiling of the kitchen, a gleaming white, when suddenly he slipped and fell. Now, here he was. No income. Only the prospect of long, dreary months in this bed.

Jim opened his eyes slowly. There was someone, a stranger, at his bedside. He didn't want to talk to him or to anyone.

"Hi, Jim," the stranger spoke smilingly.

Jim looked up at him grimly. "Hello," he said grudgingly.

"Jim, my name is Norman Andrews. Is there anything I can do to help you?"

Jim spoke bitterly, "You can tell me how my family is going to eat during the next six months."

"Maybe I can help you at that," Andrews replied. "Have you ever heard of state disability insurance?"

Andrews told Jim of California's answer to a very serious social problem—the state disability insurance plan which became effective, December 1, 1946, paying benefits to wage earners who had worked in employment covered by the Unemployment Insurance Act and had become unemployed through non-occupational illness or injury.

Jim was now listening hard. Perhaps here was the long looked for opportunity for which he had been praying. "Tell me more," he asked Andrews.

Andrews explained the requirements for eligibility to receive disability insurance benefits. The law requires, he said, that a worker must file a claim in accordance with regulations; earn a minimum of $300 in employment covered by the Unemployment Insurance Act, during the "base period" and file a claim for benefits accompanied by a medical certificate verifying the disability. Claims should be filed from the 8th to the 28th day of unemployment and disability.

"How much do you think I can receive?" Jim asked.

"The amount of disability insurance which you may receive during a 'benefit year' (one year period from the day claim is filed) is determined by law, exactly as unemployment insurance. It ranges from $160 to $650, depending upon the amount earned during the base period. The weekly rate varies from $10 to $25."

"That would help a lot," Jim joyfully exclaimed. He eagerly pressed Andrews for more information about disability insurance.

Disability insurance benefits may not be received in the same week in which a person fulfills his eligibility to draw unemployment insurance, although both may be drawn during the same year. Unemployment insurance benefits are payable if a person is unemployed and able to work and available for employment; disability insurance, when he is not able to work because of sickness or injury. Both kinds of benefits can be paid to an individual during a single benefit year, but the maximum amount, if both are drawn, is one and one-half times the maximum amount allowable as either unemployment insurance or disability insurance benefits. For example, if a person receives a maximum award of $650 in either unemployment or disability insurance the total he could receive for both unemployment and disability insurance during the same year would be $925.

The disability insurance law provides that a person may not be eligible if he is receiving or entitled to Workmen's Compensation benefits in the same amounts or exceeding what he would receive under the disability insurance program. These benefits are payable from another source.

Jim thanked Andrews for his welcome information and explained that the disability insurance program was the best news he had heard in a long time. He was eager to file a claim for these benefits and asked Andrews if he could secure the necessary forms.

Andrews by way of answer handed him a first claim form, instructed him to fill out the worker's half of the claim form, to give the doctor's certificate to his attending physician for completion and mail the form to the address shown on the claim form. The claim is mailed to Sacramento for a determination of an award based on prior earnings and then is referred to the district office nearest the claimant's home for determination of eligibility to receive disability insurance benefits.

He told Jim that certifications for the period of his disability and his checks would be handled by this office.

Workers may secure information and a first claim form for disability insurance from any office of the California Department of Employment.

WITHIN SOVIET OCCUPIED LITHUANIA

Milton C. Stark

Following up the secret pacts of the Stalin-Hitler alliance of 1939, in which the Soviet "sphere of influence" was extended to include the territory of the Republic of Lithuania, Soviet armies marched into Lithuania, overthrew its government, and incorporated its territory into the Soviet Union.

Thus, the Soviet Union committed an act of direct aggression against Lithuania, in violation of the following treaties: (1) The Russian-Lithuanian Treaty of Peace of 1920, which renounced for all time "all sovereignty rights of Russia concerning the Lithuanian nation and Lithuanian territory which previously belong to her" and guaranteed Lithuania the recognition due an independent, sovereign territory; (2) Article 10 of the Covenant of the League of Nations of 1919, which bound its members to respect of sovereignty, integrity, and independence of territories within the League and without it; (3) the Treaty of Non-aggression of 1926, whereby Russia agreed "to respect under all circumstances" the sovereignty and independence of Lithuania; (4) and lastly, the tenet of international law, whose very nature is "liberty and justice for all."

INTERNAL ECONOMY

The economic situation in Lithuania is much the same as it was under the first Russian occupation (1940-1941): Farmers are burdened with excessive State levies on their produce; available farm labor is at a minimum, and there is a lack of fertilizer and machinery. Deportation of men and materials has aggravated the conditions to a point where the cultivation of land is being abandoned. Farmers are moving to the cities or going to live with relatives.

Even the most essential things to person and life are difficult to obtain. What there is to get is had by the black market. A pair of shoes is sold for 800 roubles; a suit, 4,000 to 6,000 roubles; an egg, 5 roubles; a kilogram of bread, 24 to 45 roubles; a kilogram of butter, 160 roubles; a kilogram of bacon, 160 roubles. The American dollar sells for 90 roubles.

The average employee makes a scanty salary. A high school janitor earns 160 roubles a month; factory workers, 200 to 400 roubles; a high school principal, 1,000 roubles.

The State-owned stores have vodka to sell, little else. Business outside the black market is at a standstill. Russians and vagrants roam the streets, the rural areas in search of pelf, and robberies and thefts are common. Red Army soldiers and Soviet officials alike must scavage or steal to fill their needs.

ARRESTS, EXILE AND COLONIZATION

Arrests and exile of persons continue. Farmers who fail to meet the State crop quotas are arrested and sentenced to serve long terms in Russian penal colonies. In the same manner, families of partisans and those individuals who sin against Bolshevik order are promptly executed or dispatched to Siberian concentration camps.

One of the main concentration camps is located in the Komi republic, in the Vorkuta region, on the European side of the Ural Mountains. Life there has been described as most primitive. Hard physical labor and a poor, insufficient diet combine to raise the death rate to an astonishing figure. Few persons have come back from the Vorkuta concentration camp.

The Russian colonization program is another step in the plan to absorb the Lithuanian people. Whole communities of Russians from distant parts of Russia are being translocated to Lithuanian lands, where they take up residence on farms and the like. These Russians have their own assigned sections (mostly in the Kaunas and Klaipeda districts) and are kept apart from the Lithuanians. For the most part the colonists are ragged and diseased.

THE CHURCH

Worship is not expressly forbidden, but it is restricted to the churches. A close watch is kept on churchgoers and clergy. Government officials and generally persons of a higher status may not go to church if they choose to keep their jobs. Teachers who attend Mass are looked upon as low moral types.

Church attendance in rural areas is small because the people must be constantly on the lookout for marauding robber bands who would make off with their property. In urban communities, on the other hand, on Sundays churches are filled to capacity.

Tremendous taxes are imposed upon church buildings: a cathedral's yearly tax is 45,000 roubles. The clergymen themselves must pay a yearly individual tax of 20,000 roubles.

Arrests of priests are frequent. The number of priests in Lithuania is somewhat over 500. Three bishops have been arrested: Bishop V. Borisevicius and Bishop P. Ramanauskas, both of Telsiai, and Bishop T. Matulionis of Kaisedorrys. Sixty priests have been similarly apprehended, among them: Rev. Fabijonas Kemesis, formerly resident in the United States; Monsignor Rauda; Monsignor Labukas; Rev. V. Mieleska; Rev. J. Dagilis, former member of the Lithuanian Diet; Rev. S. Gustas; Rev. Sauklys, S.M.; Rev. Bieliunas; Rev. Fabijanskas, vicar of the Church of the Resurrection in Kaunas; Rev. Vaisnoras of Sakiai.

According to recent news the last remaining seminary has been closed down in Kaunas.

Further State restrictions prohibit bishops from issuing pastoral or diocesan correspondance. No priests are admitted to the Klaipeda Territory.

THE PARTISANS

The partisans are Lithuania's underground. They hide in the forests and wage a ceaseless guerilla war against the Bolshevik oppressor. They are Lithuania's real patriots. Red Army detachments and NKVD units have not succeeded in stamping out the partisans.

When a partisan is caught he is shot or hanged. The corpse is then exposed in a public place to serve as a warning to other partisans and to instill fear in the minds of the populace. The partisan's kin, from the first to the last, are severely punished or exiled to perish somewhere in Siberia. Persons failing to report partisan movements or contributing to the partisan cause are dealt with accordingly.

The partisan movement, nevertheless, is instrumental in keeping local quislings and NKVD henchmen in some kind of check and thus mitigating their harsh methods.

CALIFORNIA ECONOMICS

PART I (Topography)

California, the land of sunshine, was admitted to the Union as the thirty-first state on September 9, 1850. It had previously been a part of the territory which was acquired by the United States from Mexico by the treaty of Guadalupe Hildago which was signed in February of 1848.

The State of California embraces approximately three-fifths of the United States, extending from the Mexican Border northward for nearly a thousand miles, on the East it is bounded by the States of Arizona and Nevada, and on the North by the State of Oregon. Sacramento is the site of the State Capitol; the state flower is the California Poppy.

The State embraces an area of 156,803 square miles and ranges in width from 150 to 375 miles, within which exists nearly every combination and every contrasting extreme of topography, climate, soils, minerals, plant and animal life which can be found in these United States. California is larger in area than most of the principal European nations, is about six times the size of Lithuania and is surpassed in area by only one other state, Texas.

About one-fourth of the land area of California is level. Most of this valley land is between sea level and 500 feet in elevation and comprises the principal agricultural areas of the State. The characteristic warm temperature belts, where most of her people live, are below the 2,000 foot elevation. About three-fourths of the area is in rolling hills and rugged mountains ranging in elevation from 500 feet to over 14,000 feet. Death Valley, which is 276 feet below sea level, is the lowest spot in the United States, Mount Whitney, which towers to an elevation of 14,496 feet. The rugged mountain regions contribute to the natural enrichment of the State. They contain great forest areas, game and fish, as well as bountiful abundance of scenic vistas and beautiful and restful recreational facilities.

The Golden State has 18 National forests, covering approximately 23 million acres, which protect and maintain in a permanently productive and useful condition land not suited to farming but capable of growing timber (about one-half of the merchantable pine and fir of the state is in these forests), regulating the flow of streams, and providing grazing areas for livestock. Some of these National Parks preserve in their primitive condition, some of the scenic wonders of this country, such as: the Giant Sequoias (Redwoods), Yosemite Valley and the Mount Lassen Volcano.

The State Park System includes over 70 parks and historic monuments and covers 313,816 acres of the State.

The case of Lithuania is the case of all Soviet-subjugated Europe; wherever the Soviets are in power there is slavery, famine, and death. The UN knows this. The world knows this. The Soviet war machine gathers power, decimating peoples and pillaging lands while senile peacemakers talk clap-trap in luxurious UN conference halls. If Christianity, Humanity, and Justice are to direct the life of mankind, then the Soviet destroyer must be stopped now—not by insane prattle, but by forceful action.

THE END

All in all there are nearly 8,000 lakes in the State, 26,000 miles of potential fishing streams, 1,584 miles of navigable river or canals and 671 miles of bay and harbor shorelines providing excellent facilities for such outdoor sports as fishing, hunting and camping.

SONG OF THE FREIGHTER

(For the Hans Heg of San Francisco)

By Fred E. Truman (Brazevicius)

She rolled, steaming down from Korea,

With her plimsol line in the air,

Till they flooded her afterholds with brine

To ease her nightmarish despair.

A westerly gale overhauled her,

But she squatted low by the stern;

Her bow, like a jib, was down the wind:

She had tons of fuel to burn.

So she lumbered to Honolulu,

And spurning the tugs that came near,

An empty shell, running red with rust,

She slid 'gainst the marginal pier.

Then her cable blocks were unfrozen,

And her boarding ladders were hung;

Her hatchway covers were laid aside,

And her cargo booms were unslung.

Steel rod was snaked down her hungry holds,

Red bundle by bundle it went;

And foot by foot she settled right down

With a sated freighter's content.

Above that tonnage went crates by cube;

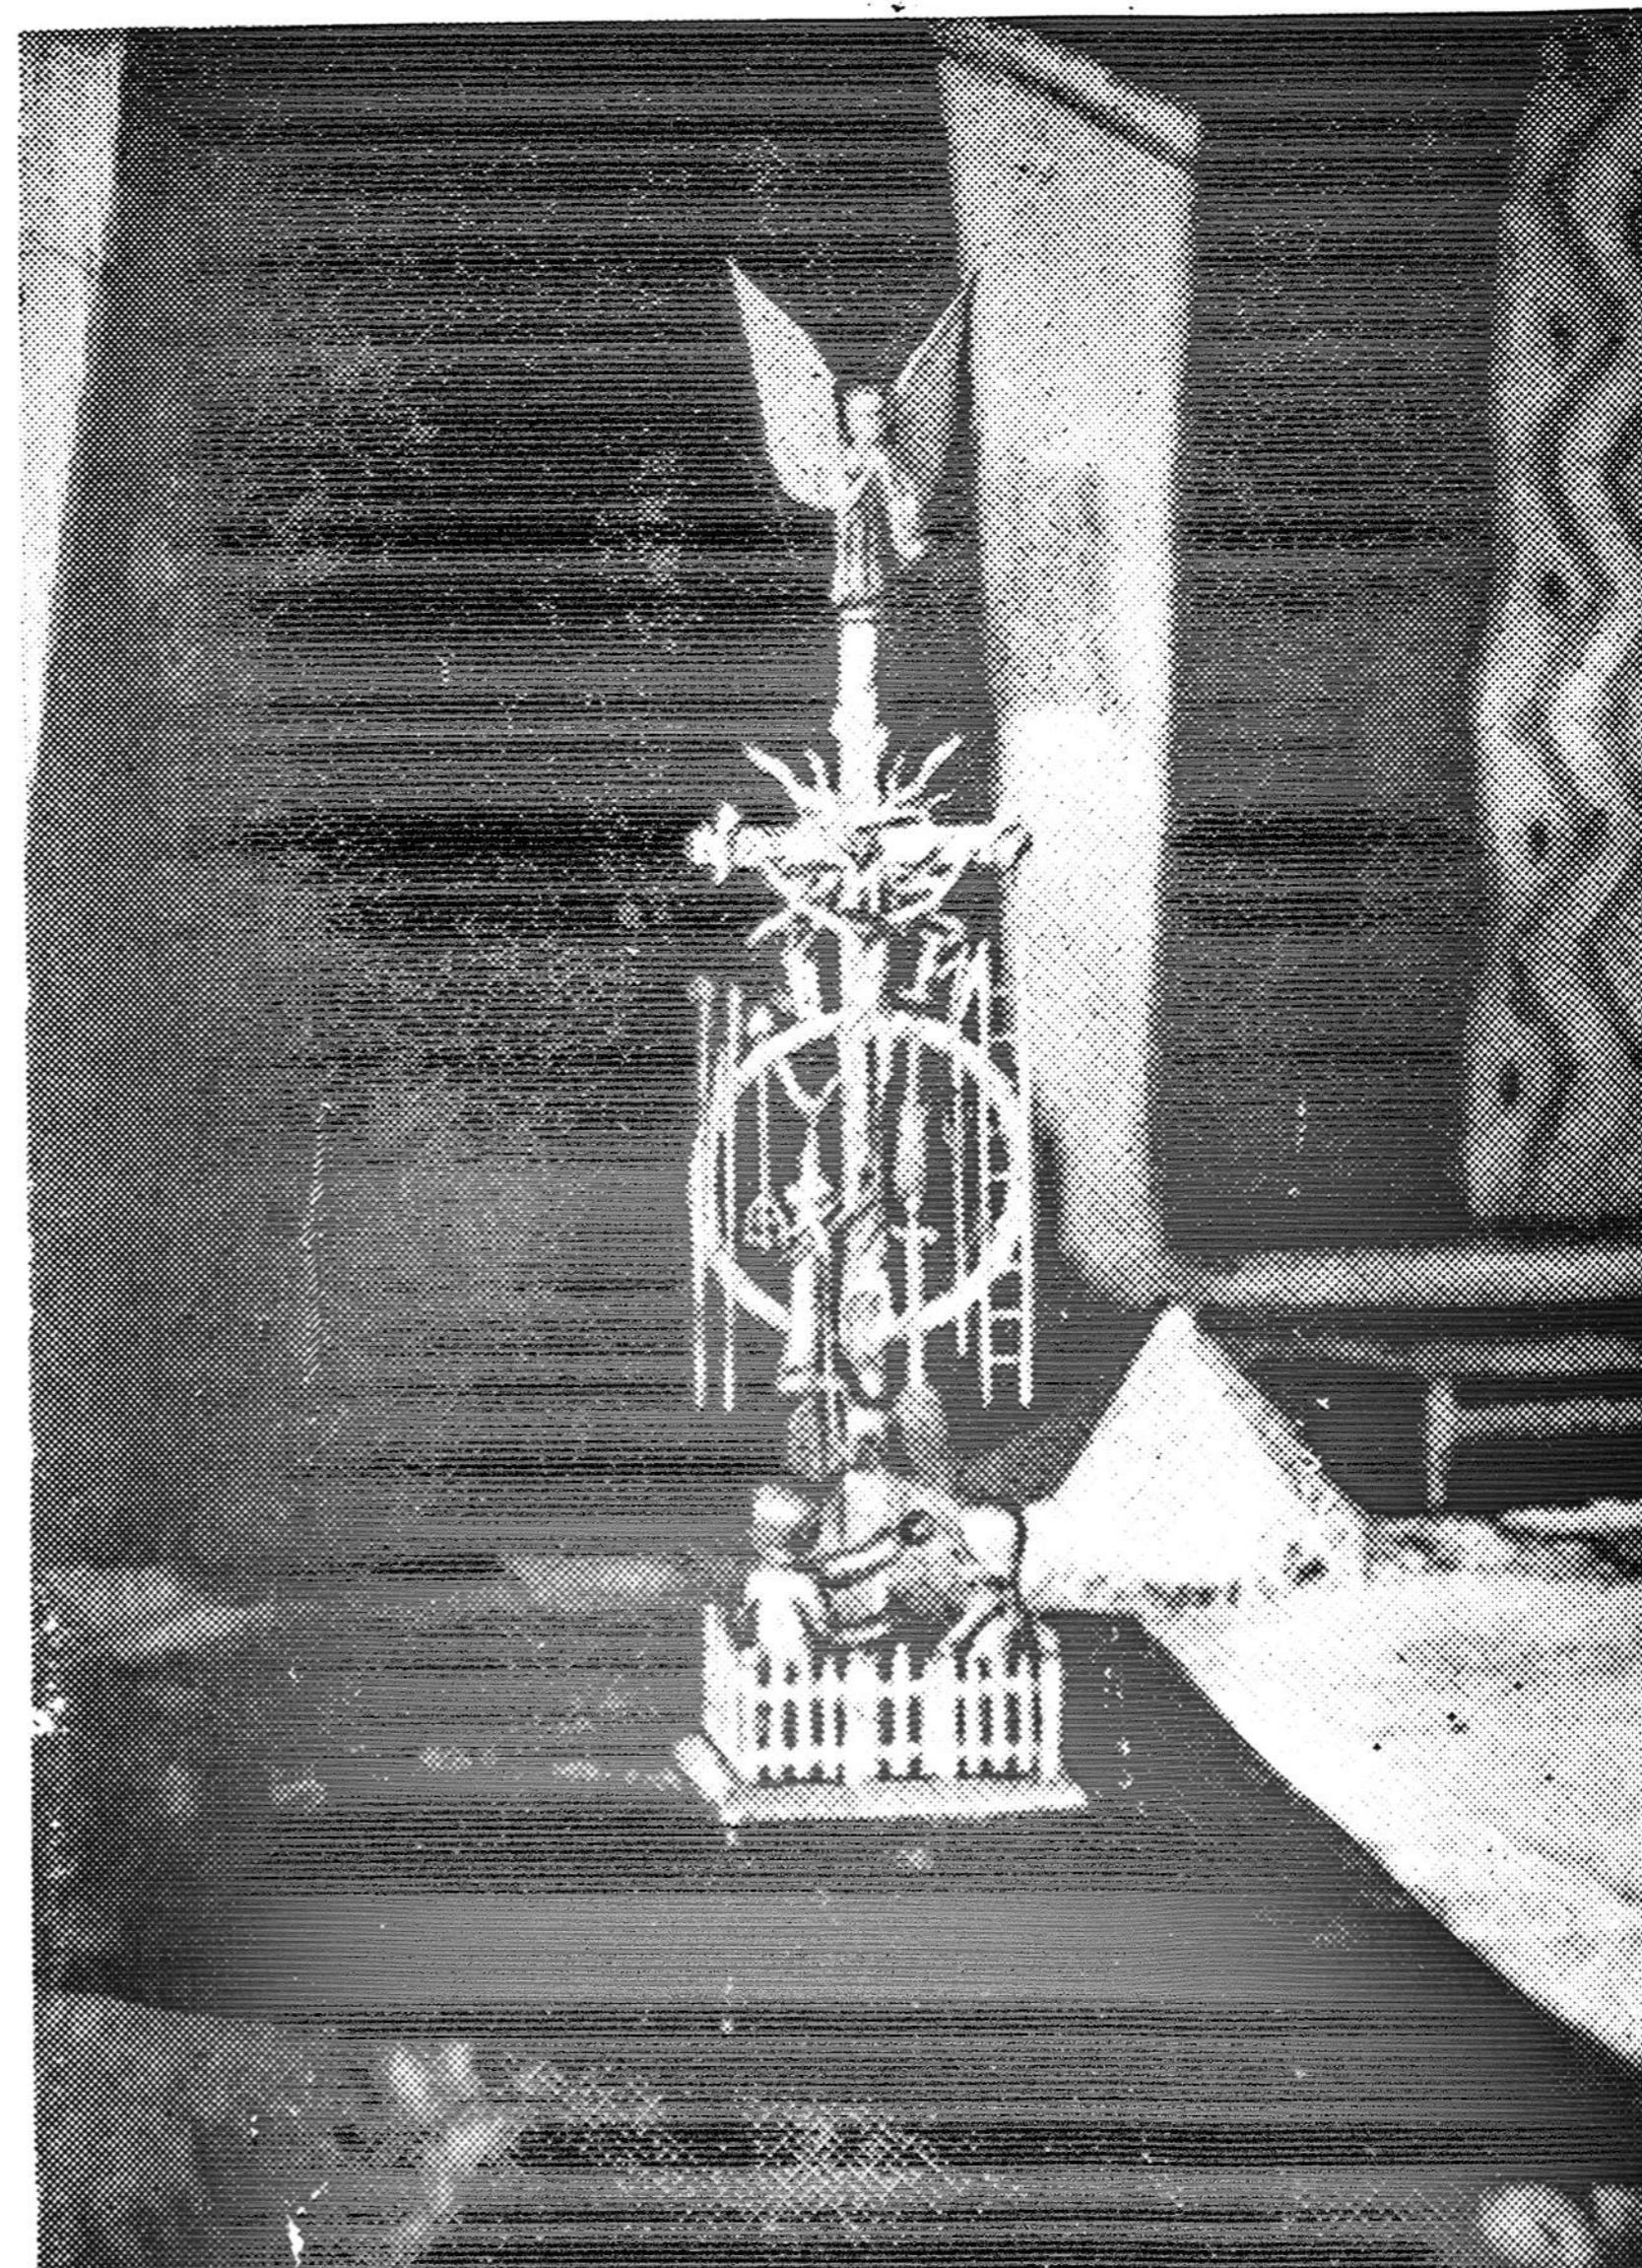

Then she left us without a qualm,

Wearing new paint, like a clean black coat,

And pointing her bow for Guam.

A LITHUANIAN CROSS AT THE EXHIBITION OF BALTIC NATIONS IN SONGAU, GERMANY

LITHUANIA UNDER THE CLOAK OF RED DEMOCRACY

VICTIMS' LAST TESTAMENTS

The political prisoners of Telsiai carcer left their last testaments, even though they did not know at the time of the tragedy which was to befall them.

After the Bolsheviks had fled, investigators found an aluminum plate hidden in the carcer's tenth kamara, on which were scratched these last words:

"The long-awaited steel swallows of the sky have arrived over Telsiai from the West, June 22, 1941." (The reference is to Nazi Germany's aerial offensive against Soviet Russia in the Baltic States).

"We, thirteen political prisoners, victims of Bolshevism, are imprisoned in Telsiai carcer, Number 10; like thirsty elks yearning for spring water, we await the deliverance of freedom, which seems hopeless.

"My homeland is being torn apart by plundering Asiatics. They are torturing the native Lithuanians, casting them into prison cellars. Traitors are aiding them.

"This morning, June 23, 1941, our faces grew brighter, our hearts became inflamed, for we saw bombers dropping bombs on Bolshevik military installations in Telsiai.

"The sadistic guard, Kabaila, who has persecuted us, and who three days ago struck me in the face, has lowered his ears.

"The carcer's chief politician and Bolshevik, the blind Vaitkus, who intended to take the 58th Section with which all of us Lithuanian political prisoners are charged, to Berlin, is running about in distress, his black, pig-like snout silent.

"Tavainis . . . tells us of good news . . . the traitors are fleeing eastward; Kaunas is free; the National flag hangs everywhere. We congratulate each other on the Independence of Lithuania.

"Today, June 24, 1941, is a beautiful sunny morning; through the steel grating of the window sparkles blue Mascio Lake. We await the end of Bolshevik bondage . . . Visagorskis, our friendly guard, tells us of this.

"The political prisoners of Telsiai carcer, Number 10: Joseph Antanavicius, Albin Baltramiejunas, Baltraičaitis, Casimir, Constantine Bucius, Augustine Gaudutis, Adolph Jagminas, Casimir Katkus, Charles Kizevicius, Joseph Kvedaras, Vytautas Lileikis, Casimir Puskorius, Adam Rakas, Andrew Rudokas—Telsiai, 23/6/41."

BURIAL OF THE TORTURED

News of the slaughter at Telsiai spread through the whole land like a bolt of lightning. Many persons hurried to Telsiai to look for their dear ones. The entire town was in mourning. Mothers clasped their sons mutilated bodies to their breasts, weeping and fainting. The tragedy of that scene cannot be described.

July 1 was selected as the date for burial. The city was draped with Lithuania National flags, a black band crossing each. All roads leading to the city were jammed with people, riding and on foot, traveling to the funeral. Faces were sad and drawn. It was a funeral such as Lithuania or the world had seldom seen or experienced.

A grave had been dug in Telsiai cemetery. It was a common grave, for it had been decided to bury the dead as they had suffered, together, leaving a monument perpetuating the names of those who died for God and Country, for passersby of another day to look upon and remember.

The funeral procession formed at Rainiu Wood, the scene of the atrocities, and progressed at a slow pace toward Telsiai Cathedral. Seventy-three biers were drawn by seventy-three carriages. Each carriage was embellished with green branches, firs, and wreaths taken from the Wood. Almost every bier had its party of mourners, relations and friends of the deceased; while, flanking either side of the train, a multitude of other mourners walked in silence. A great circle of girls in National dress, carrying garlands, symbols of reciprocal love and sorrow, surrounded the conveyances.

The biers were carried into Telsiai Cathedral and placed about a specially arranged altar and the Mass for the Dead began. Only the immediate families and friends of the deceased were able to view the ceremonies, for the Cathedral was too small to contain all of the thousands of mourners.

Following the Mass, the procession once again started on its way to the cemetery and final resting place, by way of those same streets which only a short time ago had echoed the steps of Bolshevik murderers. At the head of the procession was a cross; behind it walked a group of school boys, followed by representatives of organizations, priests, choir boys, and musicians; then the long line of biers and the many mourners. The voices of the Choir and the sounds of the orchestra combined with the knell of church bells to give the ceremony a grave and tearful air. The political prisoners of Telsiai carcer were no longer prisoners of any classification. They were free.

In the cemetery on Rambynas Hill, the coffins were placed row on row in the common grave. The bereaved strew Lithuanian flowers of the gardens and fields over their husbands, brothers, and fathers, lying there in the ground. There was crying at the graveside, mentioning the meaning of the tortures, the greatness of the suffering undergone by the tortured, their bravery and the example of fortitude and determination set by them in their struggle to defend their God and Country against the forces striving to destroy them. The priest's oration was interrupted several times by the general grief expressed by the congregation.

The last rites having been administered, the relations, friends and various organization officials began their farewell addresses. Then, as one, the entire body of men, women, and children rose and proclaimed their allegiance to God and Country, to defend themselves always. Of its own accord, the Lithuanian National Anthem sprang forth from everyone's lips. Starting at a low pitch, it slowly increased in volume until the whole countryside rang with its thunderous verse—"Lithuania, our homeland, land of the great . . ." No one could stem the tide of ardor flowing through his veins. Those who had not let a tear fall now looked to heaven with glistening rivulets streaming down their faces.

At last it came time to say goodbye. And as the people drew away, they sang, "Mary, Mary, relieve our captivity . . ."

That grave in Telsiai cemetery is a monument to Lithuania's fight to death against Bolshevik oppression. Its spire remains a challenge and inspiration to freedom-loving peoples everywhere, to fight Bolshevism and its agents, to protect justice, religion, and human rights where Bolshevism seeks to uproot them.

DP SITUATION AND ACTION

There may not be many of you who read "The Tidings." Therefore, I will relate the article that I read about the DP's, as I know it will interest many.

"Credit for breaking the log-jam in Congress in regard to Displaced Persons legislation was given to the National Catholic Resettlement Council by Charles P. Taft, Cincinnati lawyer, who is president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America."

"The Catholic Resettlement Committee of Los Angeles in an appeal for aid in settling Displaced Persons in this area was suggested to people here. All nations agreed to resettle a fair share of Displaced Persons."

"Particular aid is needed in caring for a great number of orphans who lost both parents during the war. Most of these orphans are under the age of 14 years. Arrangements for the adoption of an orphan can be made by contacting the Resettlement Committee."

The Committee's headquarters are at 3711 Woodlawn Ave., Los Angeles 11, California.

In the "REGISTER" were vital messages for us also.

"Two hundred thousand displaced persons in Europe would be admitted to the U. S. over a period of two years under a bill approved by the Judiciary committee of the House of Representatives. It would also permit 15,000 persons already in the U. S. to remain permanently. The DP entrance will be in three categories, priority would be established, top priority would go to those with technical training. The second group would be those who are blood relatives of U.S. citizens or aliens lawfully residing here. All others would be in the third group.

SMALL TOWNS ABLE TO TAKE DP'S

Considerable opportunity for displaced persons exists in the small towns and rural communities of New York State. There are housing and employment opportunities for these people. The greatest need for their service is the rural areas, where there are also plenty of housing facilities for them. What is true of New York towns' ability to help DP's is probably true of many other small towns and farm areas.

COMMITTEE MEETING FOR OPERA CONCERT

Dr. J. J. Bielskis, Consul of Lithuania, invited a group of Lithuanian workers in Los Angeles colony to form a committee to work for the concert to be given Saturday, June 12th at 8 p.m. at the Patriotic Hall, as a welcome to our great Prima Donna of Lithuania, VINCE JONUSKA - Zaunis, to Los Angeles.

This had to be acted on without loss of time, being an end of the social season.

Friday, May 14th, a group of about 20 prominent workers gathered in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bielskis, in Westwood Hills. The gathering elected the following officers: Mr. C. Luksis as chairman; Mrs. S. Battkus as secretary, and Mr. P. Rackus as treasurer of the special committee.

Mr. Rackus will be in full charge of tickets to be distributed. Publicity committee consists of Mr. Skirius, Mr. Puzinas, Mrs. Rackus, Mrs. De Rosse and Adele Kucinskas. Dr. Bielskis and Rev. Tamulis are advisors. Hosts and hostesses for the concert are Mr. Dering, Mr. Puzinas, Mr. Archis, Mrs. Bielskis, Mrs. Rackus, Mrs. Vaitek, Mrs. Dering, Adele Kucinskas. The tickets are priced very reasonably for such an outstanding performance, rating from $2.00, $1.50 and $1.00. It will be our first privilege to hear the greatest Prima Donna that Lithuania has at the present day. We should consider it a great honor to be able to hear her and a great blessing to be within bounds to attend this modern classic concert.

The artist has studied in the conservatories of Berlin, Rome and Lithuania. After completing her studies, she participated in operas in Berlin, Milan and Rome. Always taking leading roles, and playing in all the big cities of most countries in Europe, and South America, she became the Prima Donna of Lithuania State Opera, and remained so, until the occupation of Lithuania by Soviet hordes. This did not stop our songstress. She continued with concerts throughout the D. P. camps, to cheer the depressed population.

Now that she is here safe with her family, with the untiring assistance of her sister, Miss Katherine Jonusko, R. N., of Santa Barbara, we, the Lithuanian people of Los Angeles area are putting out our efforts to give our nightingale a new beginning in this country, so that those who have not as yet known her, may have the honor to participate and recognize the deep culture and the great artist that this singer really is. Therefore, the committee and I feel that our new citizen is most deserving of every Lithuanian and musically interested person's attendance and support:

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. Bielskis served delightful refreshments.

COMMEMORATION OF MONSIGNOR MACIEJAUSKAS

May 14th—

At nine-thirty in the morning, High Mass was celebrated with Rev. J. Kucinskas officiating and Rev. J. Tamulis assistant and Rev. Chizauskas, guest from Mexico state assisted. The services were attended by Doctor Bielskis and his wife and many parishioners, also old friends and acquaintances.

After Mass, breakfast was served by our generous women of the parish. We are hoping that this will be an annual affair with continual increasing popularity in attendance.

After seeing the picture "The Iron Curtain" I am convinced, as many others will be, that there is hope now that there will be more action taken to clean up on the Communist and free our country Lithuania, and many others suppressed under her cloak.
