

KORESPONDENCIJOS

Korespondentas Krikstuoja Tulus Apsireiškimus Bostone

Iš Lietuvių Komiteto Darbuotės ir LSS.

BOSTON, Mass.—Suvirš me-tai tam atgal, Bostone įsisteigė Lietuvių Komitetas kovai už Nepriklausomą Lietuvą, kuris, kaip tada buvo aiškiai pasisakyta, tarp kitko boikotuos tuos biznierių ir profesionalus, kurie rėmė mūsų tėvų šalies okupantų pakalikus.

Prie to komiteto, kovai prieš bendrą priešą, buvo prisidėję ir socialistai. Bet su apgailestavimu reikia pasakyti, kad ne visi tan dabar įstoję žmonės derino savo žodžius su darbu.

Kaipo nemalonų keistenybę reikia pažymėti, kad atsirado vienas socialistas, kuris viešon boikotuoti Maskvos agentų biznį, jį rėmė duodamas komunistų vedamai radijo programai savo biznio skelbimų.

Keista ir tai, kad tas asmuo po šiai dienai sakosi, kad jo simpatijos gludi su socialistais, vienok jo darbai byloja jį teikianč pinigiską paramą Kremliaus agentams, kurie yra ne tik mūsų tėvų žemės nelabai priešai, bet mūsų naujosios tėvynės, Jungtinių Amerikos Valstijų.

Keista ir gaila.

L.S.S. Bankietas.

Pereitą pavasarį So. Bostono ir Cambridge L.S.S. kuopos buvo surengę sekmingą bankietų paminėjimui tų kuopų 35 metų gyvavimo sukakčiai. Jis suėjo visos apilinkės senieji veikėjai, kurie praleido malonų vakarų dalindamiesi išpužiais, ir pergyvenimais iš ilgosios metų virtinės darbuotės.

Veikėjai džiaugėsi, kad socializmo idėja šiandien yra labiau negu bile kada pirmiau progresyviojo pasaulio įvertinama, kad darbininkija labiau įmatė socializmą kaip jos geriausią užtaręją ir gynęją.

Po bankieto vakarienės turėjo įvykti dainų programa, kurios pildymui buvo pakviesta jauna dainininkė, vieno senio socialisto veikėjo dukterė. Jai turėjo planu akompanuoti kita jauna mergelė, kuri, kaip teko patirti tapo komunistų įtekmėnė paviliota. Dainininkė pasirodė, bet pianistė ne, ir taip koncertinės dalies bankiete neturėjo.

Vėliau komunistai tiesijosi, kad jie iškirto socialistams špą, kad jie, girdi, davė įsakymą tai pianistei neiti į bankietą ir kad ta maskolių "orderį" išpildė.

Dainininkės Reikalas.

Po kurio laiko komunistai rengė pikniką ir per savo radijo pusvalandį garsino, kad jų išvažiavime koncertinę dalį pildys ta mūsų senojo socialistų veikėjo dukterė dainininkė. Tie stalinaičiai dar labiau ėmė tiesyti, kad jie nuo socialistų ir dainininkės pasiveržė.

Tikrai keista, kad turime žmonių, kurie arba nemoka plačiau įžiūrėti ar yra silpnavaliai ir nežino kur reikia padėti taškas, Niekas nepavydi tai jaunai dainininkei lavintis muzikoje ir dainuoti, priešingai, mes visi ją linkime gerasių pasekmių. Bet daugelis mūsų negali suprasti kaip žmogus gali susidėti su svetimos šalies interesams pasidavusiai srovelei, kurios programa susideda iš biaušaus šmeizimo ir purvų drapstymo visų tų žmonių, kurie neprita-

Vargšas Žebrokas Mokinosi, Vargė ir Niekas Neišėjo

Po Trijų Mėnesių — "Piš".

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Vienas mūsų SLA politikierius, didelis žebrokas, praleidęs tris mėnesius Chicagoje kur lavinosi kaip geriau SLA kuopos miltinguose kelti betvarę ir trukdyti veikėjams veikiantiems trečiajam SLA vaju, sugrįžęs bandė savo mokslą praktikon įgyvendinti.

Pasigavęs keletą "flunkių" adjutantų ir karčiamose nusitrypusių Nikalojaus antro "sal-dotų" atsilankė andai į vietinės SLA kuopos susirinkimą ir mągino didelį ergelį sukelti, bet rimtieji nariai vargšą greitai apramino. Dabar jis nesupranta kaip tai įvyko. Trys mėnesiai lavinimosi ir viskas piš-šš.

EYEWITNESSES!

We saw it happen!*

No one in the world today is better qualified than America's top-rank observers to tell you about the spot your country is in. No one has a better right to tell you what to do about it. Today, they speak with startling unanimity. With their own eyes, they have seen Hitlerism in the act of enveloping the world. They have been nation after nation crumble in Hitler's path. As journalists, their job is to see—to analyze—to report. As fellow Americans, their responsibility is to keep you informed. And your responsibility is to listen to them! These 12 are among those experts who saw the fate of the people of Ethiopia, China, Czechoslovakia, Poland, the Low Countries, France, Russia. Now they see what is going to happen to you if you don't act at once. That's why they plead with all Americans to wake up—now—before it is too late!

JOHN GUNTHER, born in Chicago, Ill., author of "Inside Asia," "Inside Europe"; has witnessed the rise of the anti-democracies all over the world.

"I have just returned from Latin America. It is boiling with Fifth Column agitation. If Hitler wins in Europe, he will tackle Latin America next, which is our exposed and vulnerable frontier. We must stop the Nazis now."

EDGAR ANSEL MOWRER, born in Bloomington, Ill., for weary months watched the Nazi machine as the head of the Chicago Daily News Bureau in Berlin.

"Gambler Hitler is not throwing the flower of his army against the Soviets for any ordinary reasons. If he succeeds, he will be potentially stronger than Britain and America combined. World domination will be in sight!"

PIERRE VAN PAASSEN, born in Holland, distinguished correspondent, author of one of the first books to arouse America, the phenomenally successful "Days of Our Years," watched Nazism at its birth.

"The major purpose of Hitler's attack on Russia was to split our country politically and thus to paralyze American aid to Britain. If we relax for but one instant, if we weaken for but one moment in our supreme task of providing the weapons necessary to crush the Axis military machine on land, on sea and in the air, Hitler's campaign to conquer the world will be won."

"Now that victory for democracy is within our reach and a better and freer world is in sight as the outcome of this struggle, we must remain constantly and acutely aware that only moral sabotage within our own ranks can nullify our efforts. Our fight for freedom has entered its most significant and decisive phase."

BETTY WASON, born in Delphi, Ind., saw the debacle start with the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia, as CBS correspondent witnessed the invasion of Norway, the battle and fall of Greece. Taken a prisoner to Berlin, she has only recently returned to this country.

"Toward the United States, more than any other one nation in the world today, the suppressed people of Europe turn for faith. The belief that we, in our dream of free men everywhere, will meet the challenge, is the spark that keeps discouraged hearts burning with hope. It is a great responsibility to hold the trust of a world in our hands. I hope the American people will not let material selfishness blind them to the crucial issues at stake."

WALLACE DEUEL, born in Chicago, Ill., saw the Reichswehr go into Holland and Belgium; saw the Luftwaffe soar out to destroy Britain while he was the Chicago Daily News reporter in Berlin.

"If the Nazis win the war, sooner or later they will force the issue with the United States. They will naturally choose the time, the place, the methods and the other circumstances to suit themselves if left free to do so. The British and the Russians cannot beat Germany. America therefore has a very simple choice. We can face the issue with the Nazis in Europe now (and the Japanese in the Far East, if necessary) and with the ally that Hitler himself said in 'Mein Kampf' was the best in the world—the British Empire—or we can face the issue in the Western Hemisphere later and alone."

JAY ALLEN, born in Seattle, Wash., foreign correspondent for North American Newspaper Alliance; has just returned, a liberated prisoner of the Nazis in France.

"The only people who believe that the Nazis can organize Europe are in this country. That is why we are in for it sure—when the Germans get around to us. Until they are ready for us they will go on trying to paralyze us with their serpent line and with the help of cynical minorities in this country. Now is the time to save ourselves—while we yet have allies."

"Remember—the Nazis are haunted by the fear that we are coming in!"

WYTHE WILLIAMS, born in Meadville, Pa., distinguished commentator on the air; possesses extraordinary contacts today over all Europe, where, from 1910 to 1936, he was correspondent of such publications as N. Y. Times, N. Y. World, Collier's, and Sat. Eve. Post.

"If Russia falls the British position is desperate. Then we are in danger of standing alone as the last of the Allies."

JOHN T. WHITAKER, born in Chattanooga, Tenn., correspondent of the New York Post and Chicago Daily News foreign service until recently, when he was expelled from Italy.

"Like the British, we Americans can regain our self-respect and find our souls again by facing up to our duties. Liberty was not bought and paid for in 1776 to be lost now because a small minority cares nothing for the eternal verities. In a democracy the minority has the right to exist but by the same token the majority has the right to rule. Lindbergh and Wheeler ought to wear the uniforms of Nazi generals. They are winning more battles for Hitler than Brauchitsch or Keitel. They are winning Japan, France and Spain to the Germans today and part of South America tomorrow."

"It is time the majority of Americans asserted themselves in the face of this minority. It is time we struck for liberty and true security—time we went to war."

H. V. KALTENBORN, born in Milwaukee, Wis., radio commentator, understands perhaps better than any other American the mentality which has allowed Hitler to dupe the people of Germany.

"Do not believe that Hitler is a fortune-favored god. Among those men who seem attached to his interests there are those who hate him; others fear him; some envy him. Your delay and your negligence help bury these important truths. Failure to act in time is the most shameful sin of which men can be guilty."

"These words were spoken by Demosthenes to his fellow-Athenians in ancient Greece. I only changed one word, to substitute Hitler for Philip. For the Athenians of ancient Greece, like the Americans of today, were fond of ease and comfort and cherished a false sense of national security in the face of grave dangers from without and within."

WILLIAM L. SHIRER, born in Cedar Rapids, Ia., author of "Berlin Diary," a veteran newsman, since 1934 has been on the death watch of democracy in Berlin.

"Does Hitler contemplate war with the United States? I have argued this question many times with many Germans here and not a few Americans. I am firmly convinced that he does; that if he wins in Europe and Africa he will in the end launch it unless we are prepared to give up our way of living and adapt ourselves to a subservient place in his totalitarian scheme of things."

DOUGLAS MILLER, born in Fayette, Ia., author of "You Can't Do Business With Hitler," commercial attaché at Berlin from 1925 to 1939, watched the attempt to dominate world economy.

"The Nazis have invaded and enslaved fifteen nations. They have looted Europe; poisoned the minds of children; attacked the Church, the school, the press. They renounce truth, justice, and mercy. They replace private enterprise by slavery. They assert their right to rule the world as a master race. They have a dictatorship controlling industry, commerce, and money in Europe."

"They propose to make the rules of international trading. They fill this country with spies, trying to break our morale, disrupt our government, divide our people. We must oppose them and beat them in the end, or lose our liberties and all that makes America worth fighting for."

BEN ROBERTSON, born in Clemson, S. C., London correspondent of PM; for long months he lived in London through the worst of the blitz; he has watched the Nazi attacks on the brave British.

"I have just come home from England and I believe the time has gone when England alone can win the war. We both are going to lose the war unless the United States comes in with full force and right away. It is going to take everything England has got and everything Russia has and everything we have to beat the Germans—we can't go on half at war and half at peace."
